Democrats and Conservative Republicans, turn out, one and all, and hear the live issues of the day ably and fairly discussed by these able speakers.

The Orange Riot in New York.

We have neither room to publish, nor taste for the publication, of the details of the late "Orange" riot in New York. The number of the killed and wounded has not been correctly ascertained, but already over one hundred have died, and probably over double that number were wounded. The small number of two hundred "Orangermen" were all that turned out in the procession, and these being protected by a line of military on the one side and police on the other, not one of them was injured. The killed and wounded either belonged to the attacking mob, or were of the military, the police, or inoffensive spectators—women and children. It is generally the case that the innocent suffer more than the guilty in all such lawless demonstrations. Through the prompt and energetic action of the Governor and police, the mob was put down before it had well organized. Let us hope that this will be the last "Orange" demonstration in the United States. Irishmen should not renew these old troubles in America.

The year 1871 will be a memorable one for the number and destructive character of its tornadoes. The dispatches come daily freighted with accounts of frightful ruin—houses torn to shreds; trees uprooted; railway trains lifted bodily from the track and pitched to one side; and people killed. The tornadoes of this year have equaled the most destructive ones of the tropics.

The Anti-Catholic Crusade.

It is stated, on what appears to be very good authority, that the recent "Orange" demonstration in New York, which led to the terrible riot in that city, was planned and abetted by English Tories and American Radicals, for the express purpose of bringing about a revival of Know-Nothingism, and instituting a new anti-Catholic crusade in the United States, so as to keep the Radical party in power. Whether the first brick-bat, which inaugurated the fight, was thrown by an Irishman, or some desperate ruffian hired by the Radicals, will probably never be known. But it accomplished its object; and those who are ever ready to turn every unfortunate occurrence, from a civil war down to a street row, into political capital, are now busy at work trying to inflame the public mind against the Catholic Church, because some bad characters, in opposition to the protest and entreaties of Bishop McCloskey and every Catholic priest in New York, engaged in a wicked and lawless proceeding on the day of the "Orange" procession.

The Mt. Vernon Republican, which is ever ready to manufacture political capital for its corrupt and sinking party, says: "The Irish Catholic mob of New York to rule this Republic!"

Our neighbor and all other distressed Radicals, may make themselves easy on that score. The Democratic Governor of New York, and the Democratic police, in a prompt and energetic manner, dispersed the mob, and not a single "Orangerman" in the procession was injured.

The New York Standard, a liberal Radical paper, does justice to the Democratic officials. Its article is headed—

BRUTE CONDUCT OF THE POLICE.

THEIR CONDUCT DESERVING OF ALL PRAISE.

THEY MEET THE RUFFIANS HAND TO HAND.

NO ORANGERMEN KILLED.

Which means, that the Democratic police, many of whom are Catholic Irish, saved the "Orangermen" from getting their heads broken.

The New York Sun, edited by Charles A. Dana, late Assistant Secretary of War, says: "It is a very great wrong to suppose that the Catholic Irish justify or desire any attack upon Orange processions. The Catholic clergy, from Archbishop McCloskey down, have all denounced and forbidden any such attack. They have spoken out boldly, like good men and good Christians, and the members of their Church sympathize with them. We do not doubt that the Irish Catholics of this city, would, if necessary, turn out under arms to defend the rights of Orangermen to walk through the streets with their banners and music. It is only the gregarious and boisterous Irish, who, with no religion and no principles of any kind, who would attempt to kill or maim the Irish Protestants. Good Catholics all repudiate and hate such brutal wickedness."

As evidence that the Radicals desire to commence a new crusade against the Catholic Church, we produce the following telegram from New York City:

PROTESTANT LEAGUE.

New York, July 12.—The following is said to be in circulation for signature: "In view of recent and probably future attempts to organize a new anti-Catholic crusade, the Protestant League of America, headquarters in New York City, has affiliated societies through the United States, is recommended. For this purpose, and properly to consider the immediate event that gives rise to this suggestion, let public meetings be called at once in this city and elsewhere. The claims of Roman Catholicism are incompatible with civil and religious liberty."

THE KNOW-NOTHINGS REVIVED.

"Early yesterday notices were sent to many surviving members of the old Know-Nothing Lodges, asking them to meet at specified times and places for the revival of the organization. It is understood over six thousand names were enrolled for these headquarters yesterday."

If the despicable gang of political thieves, who are sucking the life-blood of the nation, can revive the Know-Nothing Order, they hope to have a lease of power for four years more.

The Tribute Money Extorted from Ohio by Massachusetts.

Massachusetts pays nine millions less taxes than Ohio, but is seventy five millions richer. Massachusetts commands Ohio Republicans obey. Massachusetts buys and Ohio Republican members sell out the interests of their people for a mess of pottage or a furnished house in Washington. Massachusetts is our master, and we pay her tribute money.

In the early days of the Republic an act was introduced in Congress by a Massachusetts member, giving an equal bounty to the packers of fish, beef, pork and butter. After a time, at the instigation of Massachusetts, the bounty was taken from the packers of pork, beef and butter, but retained to the fish packers of Massachusetts; and millions upon millions of tribute money have been thus extorted from Ohio and the West for the benefit of Massachusetts. This great abuse was exposed to a House by General Morgan, when Massachusetts had the fishing bounty revealed, but she got an act passed allowing Massachusetts fish packers to buy fish at the custom house free of duty, while the pork, beef and butter packers had to pay one dollar and twenty-five cents tax on every dollar's worth of sale.

Every Republican member of Congress from Ohio voted for that law and every Democrat against it. The records of Congress prove that the Republican members generally are under the control of the members from Massachusetts; whatever the cause of this sectional injury done to Ohio is the same.

The remedy is with the people.

"Cameron and his Dogs."

In a recent article on the political prospects for 1872, the New York Evening Post has published an account of the States upon which the Radicals could confidently rely. The editor of the Huntington Globe, who is a member of the Radical State Central Committee, doesn't quite agree with the Post in this matter. He says: "We want Andy Curtin to come home. He is only man totally the people and save people from going over to the Democracy. The hearts of the people are not with Cameron or any of his dogs."

The Saratoga Races.

At the Saratoga races last Saturday, the first race for a purse of five hundred dollars, all ages, one mile, was won by Tub nar in 1:44. Outstart, the favorite, came in second, and Cadence third. The second race—selling race—for a purse of $800, all ages, one mile and a half, was won by the favorite, Midway, Nellie James second, Belmont took. At the auction, Mr. Dowell took his own horse, Midway, at $1500; time 2:40. The third race—purse $300— all ages, two miles, was won by Eolus—the favorite, Hampden, came in second, and John Morrissey's horse, Defender third; time 3:17.

The People Demand Reform.

Grant is a failure! That, everybody knows. Grant has converted the Government into a speculative machine for the benefit of Grant, Delano, Butler & Co. This fact every one feels. The people are weary; they have been patient, but their good nature has been abused. At length, honest men understand the NECESSITY OF A CHANGE—the importance of prompt and thorough REFORM.

Total demoralization exists in the federal administration. Ours is the only civilized government on earth, where the chief magistrate and all his cabinet officers would dare to abandon their duties to the care of clerks for whole months at a time, while they sought pleasure amid the dissipation of watering places, the race course, and the gambling halls of Wall street.

In this Republic our Republican President abandons his duties at the Capitol, and, careless of the interests of the people, devotes months after months to frivolous gaieties—to the ball room, the dinner table, and the race course. The example of the President is imitated by his cabinet; and under-officers, half a dozen of whom are traveling in Europe at the cost of the people. Robeson, of the Navy Department, would have made a boon companion for Louis the 14th, and spends his time in ratcheting, dancing and dinner parties. His friends call him a good fellow, and he thinks that Grant ought to be King. Our own Delano prospers! He is part owner of a Georgia Railroad. The Indian Bureau is in his Department—so is the Land Office; and he has assumed jurisdiction in the case of McGarrhan, which involves the value of six millions of money. Our Delano is practical; his genius is equal to anything from a dime to a million. From a six hundred dollar post office rent, to a million or two made in any other way, Delano prospers! Why then should the people complain! Nevertheless, they do complain, and like the rumbling of a coming earthquake they are beginning to demand REFORM! They are tired of being kicked and cuffed and robbed and snubbed, even for the honor of following Delano, even for the happiness of seeing Delano gain all, and themselves nothing. It is strange the people should become tired, while Delano prospers! New York boasts of Stewart and Astor; why should not Ohio be proud of our own Delano? To be sure Astor and Stewart made their own money; but what they were compared with our own distinguished Delano!

In sober truth, the Administration at Washington is the most corrupt on earth, and Delano is admitted to be the most honest man in the administration! It is not the Republicans who are in power, but a Grant faction. Grant has destroyed the Republican party and expects to be elected by sycophants and office-holders. But the people—the brave, honest, hard-working, tax-paying people are tired of Grant and his serfs, and are determined on REFORM!

Concealing the Thieves.

On the 13th of last December, Congress passed a resolution requiring the Secretary of Treasury to report the amount of money which had been stolen by the tax collectors, who had been removed from office. Secretary Boutwell did not reply in December. He did not reply in January. On the last day of that month a resolution was offered in the House, calling upon the Secretary to explain why he had not answered. The resolution was objected to by Mr. Judah, one of Grant's fagmen on the floor, and the resolution failed. On the 14th of February, the matter was brought to the attention of the House, Congress adjourned on the 3d of March, and a few hours before the adjournment, Boutwell sent in an answer which was dated on the 18th day of February. Why was that answer kept back until March 3d—the last hour before Congress adjourned? Because that report shows that more than twenty millions of the taxes paid by the people, were stolen before they reached the treasury. Is it the interest of the people that these men should be longer entrusted with their taxes?

The Badge of Servility.

Montesquieu says that in despotic governments, presents to the monarch are common. That no one even presents a petition to the Mogul without offering presents, which are always accepted; and that he who gives the most valuable presents always obtains the best office. Our Mogul follows the same rule. Murphy of New York made Grant a present of a costly house at Long Branch, and Grant at once made Murphy the Collector of the Port of New York. A. T. Stewart gave twenty thousand dollars towards buying Grant a palace, and Grant made A. T. Stewart Secretary of the Treasury. Hoar gave Grant a library worth twenty thousand dollars. Grant sold the library to Hoar. Grant gave Grant a handsome house in Philadelphia, and Grant made Bourie Secretary of the Navy.

When the President accepts bribes, what can the people expect from tax collectors? "Long live to The Great Mogul!" so say all the thieves and serfs in the land.

The Campaign in Ohio.

The Campaign in Ohio has opened brilliantly on the part of the Democracy, and the belief that they will carry the State, by a decisive majority, is gaining confidence every day. Meetings are announced in every county in the State, from now up to the day of the election. Colonel George W. McCook, our gallant standard-bearer for Governor, is announced to address 43 meetings; Hon. George H. Pendleton 29 meetings; General Morgan 41 meetings; General Ewing 20 meetings; Col. J. R. Cockerill, our candidate for Auditor of State, 22 meetings; E. C. Wallace, our candidate for Attorney General, 5 meetings; Hon. S. F. Hunt, our eloquent young candidate for Lieut. Governor, 17 meetings; Col. L. Baber 6 meetings; Judge Thurman, 4 meetings, &c., &c.

Horrible.

Grant's Ku Klux smelling committee has discovered a new Southern outrage. A Radical editor in Alabama published a scurrilous article about a young lady, for which he was cowardly by a brother of the young lady. Of course this is a relic of the slavery spirit, and ought to be suppressed and exterminated by the centralized government at Washington. A pretty state of affairs, truly, when a Radical carpet bag editor in the South cannot say what he pleases about young ladies. Hurrah for Grant! "Let us have peace."

Judge Metcalf, late of Ohio, and chief clerk of the Interior Department under Secretary Cox, died in Washington last week. Judge Metcalf was a most efficient officer, too honest entirely to be retained when Mr. Delano came in.

The Composition of the Administration.

Mr. Delano advised Mr. Wolf to construct a fire-proof room to be used as a postoffice. Mr. Wolf acted on Mr. Delano's advice, and the room was built. Mr. Wolf, on Delano's advice, expended eight hundred dollars more, to fit up the room, which was occupied as the postoffice when completed.

It was generally regarded by our citizens that the postoffice was permanently located on the public square, and in good part from this reason, our enterprising citizens, Messrs. Raymond and Young, and Mr. Jared Sperry, put up fine brick buildings, which do credit to our town, and have added to the value of property in that locality. The public were well satisfied.

The postoffice was conveniently located, and the Post Master General admitted that no town in Ohio had so good a room for that purpose. Mr. Wolf leased the room to the Government for one hundred and fifty dollars a year. The rent was reasonable. Mr. Wolf was satisfied, and so was the Postoffice Department. Appreciating the value, in a business point of view, of having the postoffice in his building, our worthy fellow-citizen, Dr. Woodward, made a written offer to the Government to construct a fire-proof room for the postoffice, with better accommodations than any other office in Ohio, and to grant the use of the room to the Government, for the period of ten years free of rent.

Now did the liberal proposition of Dr. Woodward stop here? He offered to convey the mail to and from the cars free of charge. The Post Master General refused to accept the offer of Dr. Woodward. In the meantime, Mr. Columbus Delano became a member of Grant's Cabinet, and the same Post Master General, who only pays Wolf $150 rent, and who refused Dr. Woodward's offer of an office free of charge, the same Post Master General, we say, has entered into a contract with Delano, and has paid him nine thousand dollars in bonds, drawing compound interest in gold, for the use of a room for the postoffice, for the term of fifteen years, being six hundred dollars a year. The greatest wrong in this matter, does not consist in the meanness of Delano, nor the injustice to Wolf, Raymond & Young, and Sperry, all good citizens, and singular to say, all Republicans. The greatest wrong in this vile transaction, consists in the conduct of two members of Grant's Cabinet, who have taken advantage of their official positions to wrong their fellow-citizens, and feather the nest of one of them out of the treasury. To those who know Delano there is nothing surprising in this last act of meanness, mendacity and avarice. Nor is it remarkable that he should be the confidential adviser of the President, who by the acceptance of any and every present from a bull pup to a palace, has caused every decent man in his party to blush with honest shame.

The "Dead Democracy."

Bascom is constantly telling his readers that the "Democracy is dead." Bascom don't believe any such ridiculous story; but he repeats it, parrot-like, from force of habit. The sensible portion of the Radical press take a different view of this matter, and admit that the Democracy is not only a living, active party, but is determined upon success at the next Presidential election. A few extracts from leading Radical journals will dispel the delusions of our misanthropic friend.

The Democratic party to-day is stronger than it ever was in its history. It means now to win, and I do not say that can not win.—Horace Greeley, at Vicksburg.

You may make light of the Democracy, but to-day, in the State of New York, there is a clear Democratic majority of ninety thousand. We never did have the Irish and now we are losing all the Germans.—N. Y. Times, (Rad.)

A great deal has been said about the dead Democracy. Those who think it is dead surely never read the story of the destruction. There will be signs in the heavens and on the earth in 1872 when this Democratic party gets its soldiers in the field.—Springfield Mass. Republican, (Rad.)

He is a fool or a traitor who expects to win an easy victory over the Democratic party in 1872. Grant can never do it with his bayonet.—New York Evening Post, (Rad.)

They may say what they please, but those who are the most confident do not know these Democrats. They are the most daring men who ever lived. They will not put any faith in them and do not trust them. In retreat they are treacherous and often fatal.—Louisville Commercial, (Rad.)

John McSwenny, Esq.

Brother MORGAN of the Newark Advertiser, pays the following just and well-merited compliment to JOHN MCSWENNY, Esq., of Wooster, who is undoubtedly one of the most eloquent and effective speakers in America:

"If there no probability of Hon. John McSwenny, of Wooster, being induced to give the country his valuable services on the stump during the pending campaign? The whole Union does not contain a finer orator. After hearing him speak at Salem, Columbus county, many years ago, John Van Buren exclaimed: 'Where is the sense of sending to New York, or anywhere else, for a speaker when you have such a man in your midst as the most whipped dog in the State?' We repeat our question—can you McSwenny be got upon the stump this campaign? Has the State Executive Committee made an effort?"

Death of Tad Lincoln.

Thomas Lincoln, universally known as Tad Lincoln, youngest son of the late President Lincoln, died at the Clifton House, Chicago, July 15th. His disease was dropsy of the heart. His eighteenth birthday occurred in May. He was taken quite ill in a few days after returning from Europe. During his illness his mother has been constantly in attendance. There has always existed the warmest affection between the two, and Mrs. Lincoln is almost prostrated by her affliction.

General Morgan's Meetings.

General Morgan speaks at Sparta, on Saturday afternoon, July 22d; at Ashland on Tuesday evening, July 25th; at Wooster, Wednesday evening, July 26th; at Canton, Thursday evening, July 27th; at New Philadelphia, Saturday afternoon, July 29th; at Coshocton, Monday afternoon, July 31st; at Dresden, Tuesday afternoon, August 1st. His other meetings, in more distant parts of the State, extend until October 7th, at Columbus.

The Stolen Taxes.

More money has been stolen by Grant's officers in one week, than during the entire existence of the Government of the United States.

The Books Won't Balance!

The books of the Treasury do not balance by hundreds of millions! Who has the money? Let the Treasury be examined.

POLITICAL.

Gen. Thomas Ewing, will deliver his first speech, this campaign, in Columbus, on the evening of the 8th of August.

The young Democrats of Columbus have organized a Young Men's Democratic Association.

McCook commences the campaign by bearing the lion in his den. He speaks at Ashland on the 25th.

Hon. D. W. Voorhees, of Indiana, has announced his intention to withdraw entirely from political life at the close of his present term in Congress.

The Young Democracy of Columbus have formed themselves into a political association, and they intend to make it a permanent institution. Such associations of old and young Democrats are needed everywhere.

The only hope of Democratic success is in a cordial and thorough union of the Democracy. Let this be the motto from one end of the country to the other and we shall soon witness a change in the programme of Public Affairs.

The Cleveland Herald warns the Republicans of Ohio that the Democracy are playing a deep game, and that the Republicans will not find it "as easy as rolling off a log" to carry the State this fall.

General Spinner, who is traveling in Europe "for his health," at the expense of the Government, and with his salary increased a hundred per cent, just to give him lots of spending money and make him feel good, is now on the way to Berlin, having done Belgium and Holland. The General writes home that he "has got a soft thing."

John G. Dan has been nominated as the Democratic candidate for Representative in Madison county. The Democrat says the Democracy are confident of carrying the county.

Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio, and Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, are mentioned by the Richmond (Va.) Dispatch as the most desirable Democratic candidates for the Presidency.

An interviewer writes that Charles Francis Adams declares he has no interest in politics, and will not be a candidate for office under any circumstances whatever. He declares there are no new issues before the people, and politics therefore lose their charm, except to interested politicians.

Rotten to the Core.

The treasury officials say that the further the investigation goes into the affairs of the Savannah Custom House, the more rotten things appear. In fact, there seems to exist in that region a tissue of adroit rascality of Federal officials which the treasury special agents are having great trouble to ferret out.

Grant's Supporters.

Thirty thousand postmasters; twenty thousand tax-gatherers; fifty thousand thieves; one hundred thousand honest men who are deceived, and all those who desire to overthrow free government.

Who are opposed to Grant? Five millions of honest men and voters.

Look to the Treasury!

After the close of the war, ships, arms, clothing and other munitions amounting to several hundred millions were sold, and no account has ever been given of the money. The people would like to know among whom it has been divided.

The Salt Tax.

Why should the Ohioan who packs beef, pork or butter be required to pay a tax of one dollar and twenty-five cents on a dollar's worth of salt, while the fish-packer of Massachusetts gets his salt without paying any tax at all?

Reform or Ruin!

From every quarter comes the cry for REFORM. It comes from the workshop; it comes from the farm; it comes from the dock yard; it is the cry of the people!—Reform or Ruin.

They Sing Mum.

Sherman did not sing; Garfield has not denied; not a single Republican editor in the whole country denies that millions of taxes have been stolen by Collectors of the Internal Revenue.

Reform or Ruin.

The people are being robbed by the million. The thieves have control of the Treasury and seek to keep it. There must be a REFORM or there will be RUIN!

The Republic declines to answer the questions propounded in the last BANNER, relative to the Delano Post Office fraud, on the plea that the editor is not the "clerk or private secretary" of Mr. Delano. This is a cowardly dodge. Bascom, ever since he came to Mt. Vernon, has filled his paper with the most sickening flattery and puffery of Delano—so much so, as to disgust nine-tenths of the Republicans of Knox county. But now, when Delano, by trickery and fraud, has secured a fat contract for erecting a Post Office building, when none was needed, and none asked for by the citizens of Mt. Vernon, the Republic has not the courage or the independence to denounce the swindle, and the editor coolly tells his readers that he is not Delano's "clerk or private secretary!" Ninety-nine out of every hundred of the Republicans of Mt. Vernon, emphatically denounce this Post Office swindle; and Bascom knows it; but Delano has played a poodle on his mouth and he is silent a dumb statue or breathless stone.

Congressman Cox, of Alabama, threw a damper on the Ku Klux enthusiasts in his testimony wherein he referred to the fact that the greatest election disturbances, or, in fact, disturbances of any kind, that have occurred in that State, were brought about by bands of armed negroes, who refused to listen to the exhortations of their best friends, but went from place to place threatening the lives of white men.

The inhuman monster, Mera, who roasted his own child on a stove, and then whipped him to death with a cowhide, in Illinois, as related in the last BANNER, was taken from jail by a mob of one thousand and persons, and hanged to death. We don't approve of mob law; but this brute had no right to live.

The President and every member of his Cabinet, with one exception, were absent from Washington, a few days ago—some visiting watering places, some attending horse races, and some on political missions. Such an Administration is a disgrace to the country.

Delano, who draws a salary of $8,000, under pretense of discharging the duties of Secretary of the Interior, but who don't spend the one-half of his time in Washington, is announced to speak at Sandusky, August 24th.

Grant Still Visiting and Dancing.

NEW YORK, July 18.—President Grant and family, General Porter and wife, and General Ingalls, visited Fort Hamilton yesterday. Upon their arrival at the Fort, a salute of twenty-one guns was fired. After inspecting the Fort and surroundings they participated in a grand ball and banquet given in their honor. The visitors returned to Sandy Hook in the steamer Henry Smith, on board of which were General Vesce, Colonel Hamilton, all the army officers stationed in harbor fortifications, and the band of the fort.

The Jacksonville (Ala.) Republican of the 24th ult., says: "On Tuesday, a lot of negroes came into town bring as a prize over a genuine Ku Klux, with his mask and fixings. He was one of the party of three who were charged with marauding about generally in disguise. The other two escaped. The one caught is a pure, unadulterated negro."

The New York Sun says that "two thirds of the police in that city are of Irish birth. Their conduct during the riot was most praiseworthy. They were the first to meet the mob in every instance. None of them flinched." It might have added that they are all Democrats, and protected the Orangermen from the assaults of the mob.

Mr. John T. Shryock, editor of the Zanesville Advocate, announces himself as a candidate for State Senator. But he will not be nominated, because he don't endorse the rascality of Radicalism, which is a prerequisite to success these latter days.

Hon. A. F. Perry, of Cincinnati, refuses to speak at the meeting applied for him by the Radical State Committee, at Portsmouth. He says he was announced without his knowledge or consent—"Let us have peace."

We wish once more to say that all Campaign subscriptions must be paid in advance. The way in which our books are kept, makes the adoption of this rule absolutely necessary.

Money by tens of thousands is being poured into Ohio by Tammany, to aid in carrying this State for the Bourbon Democracy.—Zanesville Courier.

Douglass you can take the premium as the biggest Radical liar in Ohio.

The Cincinnati Times-Chronicle (Radical), pitches into the Radical State Central Committee in a very earnest manner. Brethren, "let us have peace."

On Saturday, July 23d, 1871.

Hundreds of Democrats in Wayne, Liberty and Hilliard townships are going to hear him.

Great Land Suit.

The land on which the city of Wilmington, Delaware, is situated, it is said by the Eastern (Md.) Journal, is likely to become the subject of litigation. It is stated that some two hundred years ago, more or less, a man named Springer leased 800 acres of land to a German for ninety-nine years—that at the end of that time no one appearing to claim the land, it was sold, and became the sight of the flourishing city of Wilmington. The Springer family have found the original papers and deeds, and are about to lay claim to the fee simple of the 800 acres of land, now valued at about $80,000,000. The heirs of the original Springer now reside in Illinois, St. Louis, Potomac, Missouri and elsewhere.

Mr. Springer, above alluded to, was great-grandfather of Mrs. Jones W. WHITE of this city; and if the Springer family succeed in establishing their legal title to the land in question, we rather guess that Mr. and Mrs. W. will be classed among the "millionaires" of the country. We shall not congratulate them however until the suit is decided in their favor.

G-a-n-n-t

Our Radical fellow-citizens have been a good deal excited, during the past few days, in consequence of a rumor that our wandering President, "Useless S. Grant," was expected in Mt. Vernon, on his way to the Pacific coast. The first story was that he would be here on Friday evening last, then on Saturday, then on Monday, then on Tuesday, &c., and was to be the guest of the great and good Delano—who, it was reported, was suddenly seized with an enlargement of the heart and intended to get up a grand picnic, at his own expense, for the exclusive benefit of "Useless," to which none but the "trooply loll" were to be invited. But up to the present time our gift-ed President has not exhibited his intellectual countenance in Mt. Vernon; and all the presents that were so carefully prepared for him by his admiring friends, the office-holders and office-seekers, will spoil unless they are soon used.

Abortion and Death.

A young lady, respectfully connected, left her sister's house in Eastern Columbus on the 22d of June, under pretense of visiting in the country. Instead of this she applied and was admitted to the County Infirmary, under the assumed name of Agnes Smith. A few days thereafter she had a miscarriage, from the effects of which she died on Saturday. Among her effects was a book, and on it the name of a young man whose brother had for a long time paid attention to the girl. This led her real name being obtained. The family are in the utmost distress. The lover is suspected of giving her medicine to procure an abortion, which caused her death. During her stay at the Infirmary the supposed lover called once, but using her true name failed to see her.

Shooting Affray.

A shooting affray occurred in the village of North Liberty, on Saturday last, between two well-known citizens of that place, growing out of an alleged dirt-bait between one of the parties and the wife of the other. They first pitched into each other with fists, in the most approved style of the "manly art," after which revolvers were drawn and shots exchanged. One of the parties received a wound on the leg and the other on an arm; but neither was seriously injured. We learn that this trouble has been brewing for a long time.

Arrested for Nuisance.

Mr. Thomas Durbin, who was so superlatively "loyal" and excessively "decent" as not to allow the BANNER to enter his house during the war, nor since, was arrested by the Marshal last week for repeatedly committing a nuisance, in day light, in a public place, adjoining the Post Office, taken before the Mayor and fined $5.00. Served him exactly right. He is old enough to have known better. The fine should have been $50.

Siler & Butler.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. SILVER & BUTLER, successors to James George, who have started in the Grocery business, on Main street, opposite the BANNER office. They have on hand a large and fresh stock of Family Groceries.

The Newark Advertiser says: A letter from Bluffton, Allen county, to Dr. Patton, renders it certain that the unfortunate man who was drowned in the canal at this place on the 4th of July, was named James Jackson. He was a man of family, and had a wife and six children who live in Bluffton. He has a sister also, residing in Utica, who has not seen him five years. His wife's friends reside in Mt. Vernon. He left Bluffton six months ago, and had recently worked at his trade (tailoring) in Mansfield.

The Indianapolis Evening News (Rep.) says:

"To the credit of the New York police it is said that only two of the force, numbering over twelve hundred, were found wanting when their services were required, during the exciting hours of Wednesday, to help in enforcing the laws and promoting order. The rest were promptly stripped of their buttons and other insignia, dismissed from the force and locked up. A large part of the force being Irish and Catholics, this prompt response to the call of duty is no less surprising than creditable."

A Merchant Supposes his Wife to be a Burglar and Shoots Her.

CARROLLTON, O., July 13.
The quiet of our town was disturbed last night about eleven o'clock by the report of a pistol and a scream. In a few minutes Charles Rutenbrod, a merchant here, went wildly rushing along the street exclaiming, "I have shot my wife," "run for the doctor." In a few minutes quite a number had collected at his house. They found his wife lying on the bed suffering a good deal but not insensible. The doctor came and examined the wound and found the ball to have entered the right side, a short distance below the breast. He could not find the ball, or tell exactly the extent of the injury. It was found this morning to have glanced around the ribs and lodged toward the back. It is hoped she may recover. Mr. Rutenbrod is occupying a house in connection with his store, which was robbed some time ago, after which he had been administered to Rev. Baker, who then lived in the house. This fact, together with the absence of his partner, his keeping the keys, had induced him to keep a revolver under his head. He had retired before his wife, who had been reading at the window. When she was ready to retire she blew out the lamp, and in opening the door she started walking towards the bed where he lay. He believed it to be some one having come through the window to rob him, and he at once fired. Mr. Rutenbrod was formerly connected with the job office of the Salem Republican.

The Baltimore Borgias.

A dispatch from Baltimore, July 15th, states that in the Criminal Court, on that day, the Grand Jury came in with two presentments against Mrs. Elizabeth G. Wharton. The first is for feloniously, wilfully, and with malice aforethought, killing and murdering General William Scott Kelchum, of the United States Army, by administering tartaric acid or some other poisonous drug on or about the 23rd of June, 1871. The second presentment is for attempting to kill and murder Eugene Van Ness by administering poison at the same time.

Mrs. Wharton was soon afterwards arrested at her house and lodged in jail. She was perfectly cool and unconcerned; but protested her innocence, and expressed the confident belief that she will be able to establish her innocence. On the other hand, the officers say that the evidence against her is perfectly damning.
